R400.8125	During the course of my interview a CCSM disclosed an isolated incident of Ms. Renirie placing her legs on top of a child's legs and one of her hands on Child B's back in an effort to keep Child B lying down. Ms. Renirie shared she did not recall this; however, she did recall leaning her body over the child. Appropriate care was not provided to Child B during this incident.	Ms. Renirie was spoken to about properly helping children fall asleep. Training was provided. If a child is being disruptive or defiant, teachers are able call for extra help. Training and mentoring will be provided to all teachers during our facility development day.
