| R400.8182(3)    | On 5/24/22, the center was in violation of the maximum group size of 12 children ages infants and young toddlers. There were 14 children as reported by interim program director CCSM11 and the two CCSMs assigned to the room at the time. On 5/24/22, this room was also in violation of the CCSM to child ratio reequipments, as two additional CCSMs were | This has been corrected. The maximum group size and ratio for child care staff members to child will be in compliance at all times. | Corrected            |

In February 2022, CCSM6 observed two CCSMs with nine infants. A second CCSM was required. In May 2022, CCSM7 observed one CCSM with 14 children ages 4 years and older. A second CCSM was required. Prior to the end of June 2022, CCSM3 observed the two young toddler rooms care for 13 children, despite having a maximum groups size of 12 children. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |           |
| R400.8170(3) | The two infant rooms did not go outside on a daily basis as reported by five separate CCSMs and one parent.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | This has been corrected. The two infant rooms will provide daily outdoor play, unless prevented by inclement weather or other weather conditions that could result in children becoming overheated or excessively chilled. The center purchased more strollers to make it more accessible for the infant classrooms. | Corrected |
| R400.8176(6) | Child E was allowed to sleep in an infant swing as reported by two CCSMs.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | This has been corrected. The infants will not sleep in infant swings. All child care staff members and volunteers caring for infant and toddlers have been re-trained on infant safe sleep rules and regulations. The updated documentation is available for review at the center.                                   | Corrected |

| R400.8146(3)(c) | The center's daily log regarding Child H's diaper changes were not accurate. For example, according to the written log on 4/16/22, Child H was in care for 7 hours and 16 minutes and was not changed. This documentation does not match the CCSMs interviews that children's diapers are checked frequently and changed when wet or soiled. | This has been corrected. The center's written daily logs for infants and toddler will accurately reflect the required information. Additional training for the child care staff members was provided on the centers computer system. | Corrected |
