Findings:

General: Based on Review of Documentation and interview, this regulatory requirement was not met. On 3/31/18 a five (5) year old child was made to write sentences as punishment for being untruthful. A staff person working in the classroom wrote the word "I will not lie" on a piece of paper, drew three (3) lines under the sentence and then had the child re-write the sentence three (3) times. The child was singled out in the classroom while at the table. This experience was not developmentally appropriate and did not promote the child's social growth and well-being.
