Supervision	Not In Compliance
90 - Children Supervised	Not In Compliance
922 KAR 2:120. Section 2. Child Care Services. (3)(a) Each center shall maintain a child-care program that assures each child will be: 1. Provided with adequate supervision at all times by a qualified staff person who ensures the child is: a. Within scope of vision and range of voice; or b. For a school-age child, within scope of vision or range of voice; Findings: General: Based on interview and record review, a therapist found a four-year-old child alone in the hallway. The therapist opened the door to the classroom he was supposed to be in asking the lead teacher if she knew he was in the hallway. The lead teacher stated that she was aware he was out there and that she took complete responsibility for the situation. The therapist stated to the lead teacher that he could not be left alone and that all children are required to be supervised at all times. The lead teacher then had the child go back into the classroom. It was determined through interview with staff that the child was alone in the hallway for approximately two (2) minutes.

350 - Health, Safety, Comfort	Not In Compliance
922 KAR 2:090. Section 10. Director Requirements and Responsibilities. (1) A director shall: (l) Assure the health, safety, and comfort of each child; Findings: General: Based on interview and record review, a four-year-old child was left alone in the hallway outside of his classroom for approximately two (2) minutes. Interviews found that a lead teacher stated after she brought her preschool children in off the playground one (1) four-year-old child did not want to cooperate and go inside the classroom. She stated that the child pulled at her arm and tried to run down the hallway as if he was playing a game. The teacher stated that she told the child she was not going to chase after him and after several attempts to get him to go inside with the other children the teacher decided to go in the room and shut the door leaving the child alone in the hallway. The child was found by a therapist and was then put back in his classroom. The child was in the hallway alone for approximately two (2) minutes according to interview with staff that were present.
