Inspection Report
Supervision	Not In Compliance
90 - Children Supervised	Not In Compliance
922 KAR 2:120. Section 2. Child Care Services. (3)(a) Each center shall maintain a child-care program that assures each child will be: 1. Provided with adequate supervision at all times by a qualified staff person who ensures the child is: a. Within scope of vision and range of voice; or b. For a school-age child, within scope of vision or range of voice;
Findings: General: Based on record review and interview, a two-year-old child was left outside on the playground alone for approximately one (1) minute. The child's teacher and class had gone inside to get ready for lunch. There had originally been two teachers with eleven children but one staff took seven of the children inside. The second teacher was left with four children. When the staff person took the second group of children in she did not find the fourth child and thought there had been a miscommunication. The child was found unharmed by another staff member who heard the child beating on the hallway door that leads out to the playground. The child told the teachers that she was hiding on the playground when everyone went inside.
