(l) Assure the health, safety, and comfort of each child;
Findings:
General: Based on Interview, it was determined that a parent came to management staff about a year ago to report her child said that a staff person pulled her hair. Management did not address this issue with the staff person named. Management had been informed that this staff person had mental health issues. Recently this staff person reported that she had been taking out her frustrations on the younger children by making scary faces and causing injuries. The staff later recanted this statement but stated the last few weeks of her employment were a blur and she cried a lot. An interview with another staff found that she observed this staff person crying a lot while working with the children. Another staff reported that the named staff person was sometimes angry with the children and that some of the children would say they were afraid.
