Findings:

One's Room: Based on observation, a two-year-old child was in the One's Room with the one-year-old children during the visit on 11/16/12. Staff stated during interview that the two-year-old child is having difficulty adjusting to the center and is placed in the One's Room every morning and every afternoon after nap time rather than in the Two's Room with the older children as required.
