Findings:

General: Based on Interview, it was found that a various times children have been placed in a low to the ground feeding chair with a tray for time out. Interviews also found that this had been done until a staff meeting was held after the relicensure survey was conducted in December 2015 when they were informed that the feeding chairs could only be used for children when eating meals. An interview with the staff person in charge found she was unaware the staff were using the feeding chair to place children in for time out.
