Two (2) of the children were standing up and were told by staff numerous times they needed to sit down. There was an additional child who was sitting in a chair and wanted to get up but was told to sit down. The children were not given an alternate activity other than watching television. During an interview with the staff person in charge it was indicated that they were probably getting the children ready for lunch. The staff person in charge also indicated that the children should not have been watching television.

- (b) According to the directions or instructions on the medication's label.

Findings:

General: Based on Interview, at the time of the visit it was found that a child in the infant room was given medication. A review of medication forms in the three (3) months to one-year old room found that at the time of the visit a child had been given Tylenol. However, the parent did not give a time of day the Tylenol was to be administered. An interview with staff found that the father of the child asked that it be administered every four (4) hours as needed. Further review of the medication form found that the father had documented the date and time of the last dosage given but did not document the time the medication was to be administered.
