| Findings:General: Based on review of documentation of the child care center's policies and procedures, it was found that the center's policy states, "Never lift up, pick up or move a child using their hand, arm or wrist. If you must physically move a child then do so by picking them up under their arms (in the armpit) or scoop them up with one of your arms supporting their upper back and shoulders and the other arm under their knees." Based on review of documentation of video footage revealed that on 2/12/19, a staff person moved several two-year-old children by forcibly pulling their arms. The staff person moved a female child by forcibly pulling her by the arm resulting in the child sitting down heavily on her bottom on the floor. The staff person forcibly pulled another female child by the arm and pushed her so that she would sit down on the floor. The staff person forcefully slid a male child across the floor by pulling the back waistband of his pants. The staff person then lifted the male child by holding his arm and back waistband of his pants. Therefore, the staff person failed to implement the center's policies and procedures. |                          |
